

Bright Start Right Start II

July 23-25, 2012

Who Should Attend?

This professional development experience is for early childhood educators.

In order to participate in this pilot program, you must have previously attended a Bright Start Right Start workshop.

What is the cost to attend?

The American Electric Power Foundation has provided funding for the Bright Start Right Start Program.

As with past programs, a $25 registration fee, which will be returned upon successful completion of the program, is due by the deadline date.

How do I apply?

Complete the attached registration form, and return it by July 6, 2012 to the Teaching & Learning Collaborative.

If you enjoyed the previous Bright Start Right Start program, join us this summer for an exciting opportunity to extend your learning!

This summer we will be piloting the Bright Start Right Start II program. Content for this program will extend ideas from the previous workshop and introduce new ideas in earth science, physical science, and life science. Please note that in order to participate in the July 23-25th session, you must have previously attended a Bright Start program.

You will:

- experience new hands-on activities focused on the current Pre-K Science Standards and Model Curriculum
- build upon concepts and materials from the previous Bright Start session
- receive additional resources and activities to help you implement strategies directly in your classroom.
- discuss science instruction strategies that research indicates are best suited to early learners.

Session Information:

This session will be held July 23-25, 2012 from 9am-3pm (Note: July 25th is a half day session from 9am-Noon). The session is tentatively scheduled at the Worthington Education Center at 200 E. Wilson Bridge Rd., Worthington, OH. A confirmation letter with additional information will be mailed prior to the session. Step Up to Quality Credit is pending approval.
